

CHRISTIN DITCHFIELD

General Audience Bios

Brief Bio

Best-selling author and conference speaker Christin Ditchfield is passionate about calling people to a deeper life of faith — encouraging and equipping them to experience a more meaningful relationship with Christ. For thirty-five years, Christin has been speaking at conferences and retreats all over the country. A former syndicated radio host and a full-time professional freelance writer, she is the author of hundreds of articles and essays, and more than 80 books. Christin holds a doctorate in Spiritual Formation. She is also a Certified Labyrinth Facilitator, trained to lead others in the contemplative Christian practice of praying the labyrinth. Since 2017, she has been happily married to C.S. Lewis scholar and Episcopal priest Andrew Lazo.

Full Length Bio

Best-selling author and conference speaker Christin Ditchfield is passionate about calling people to a deeper life of faith — encouraging and equipping them to experience a more meaningful relationship with Christ. As a professional freelance writer, Christin has written dozens of gospel tracts and hundreds of articles, essays, and columns for national and international magazines. She is the author of more than 80 books and Bible studies, on a wide variety of subjects and for a wide variety of readers — including devotional and inspirational books for women, books on C.S. Lewis, books and Bible studies on Spiritual Formation, and books for children and their families.

But she is perhaps best-known for A Family Guide to Narnia: Biblical Truths in C.S. Lewis's The Chronicles of Narnia (which just went into its 18th printing), along with a half dozen other literature and curriculum guides she has written, introducing thousands of elementary school children and their families to the world of Narnia.

For seventeen years, Christin hosted her own syndicated radio program, Take It To Heart!®, broadcast daily on hundreds of stations (including the Moody network) across the United States and around the world. She's been a frequent guest on many other radio and television programs and podcasts, as well.

Christin holds a bachelor's degree (BS) in Christian Leadership with a minor in Systematic Theology, a master's degree (MA) in Bible and Theology, and a doctorate (DMin) in Spiritual Formation. She is also a Certified Labyrinth Facilitator, trained to lead others in the contemplative Christian practice of praying the labyrinth.

Christin and her husband, Lewis scholar and Episcopal priest Andrew Lazo, currently make their home in Winter Garden (Orlando), Florida.

Women's Ministry Bios

Brief Bio

Best-selling author and conference speaker Christin Ditchfield is passionate about calling women to a deeper life of faith — encouraging and equipping them to experience a more meaningful relationship with Christ. She is the author of more than 80 books and Bible studies — many of them for women, including What Women Should Know about Facing Fear: Finding Freedom from Anxious Thoughts, Nagging Worries, and Crippling Fears and What Women Should Know about Letting It Go: Breaking Free from the Power of Guilt, Discouragement, and Defeat.

Full Bio

Best-selling author and conference speaker Christin Ditchfield is passionate about calling women to a deeper life of faith — encouraging and equipping them to experience a more meaningful relationship with Christ.

As a professional freelance writer, Christin has written dozens of gospel tracts and hundreds of articles, essays, and columns for national and international magazines. She is the author of more than 80 books and Bible studies — many of them for women, including What Women Should Know about Facing Fear: Finding Freedom from Anxious Thoughts, Nagging Worries, and Crippling Fears and What Women Should Know about Letting It Go: Breaking Free from the Power of Guilt, Discouragement, and Defeat.

But she is perhaps best-known for A Family Guide to Narnia: Biblical Truths in C.S. Lewis's The Chronicles of Narnia (which just went into its 18th printing), along with a half dozen other literature and curriculum guides she has written, introducing thousands of elementary school children and their families to the world of Narnia.

For seventeen years, Christin hosted her own syndicated radio program, Take It To Heart!®, broadcast daily on hundreds of stations (including the Moody network) across the United States and around the world. She's been a frequent guest on many other radio and television programs and podcasts, as well.

Christin holds a bachelor's degree (BS) in Christian Leadership with a minor in Systematic Theology, a master's degree (MA) in Bible and Theology, and a doctorate (DMin) in Spiritual Formation. She is also a Certified Labyrinth Facilitator, trained to lead others in the contemplative Christian practice of praying the labyrinth.

Christin and her husband, Lewis scholar and Episcopal priest Andrew Lazo, currently make their home in Winter Garden (Orlando), Florida.

C.S. Lewis Event Bios

Brief Bio

Christin Ditchfield the author of more than 80 books, including the best-selling A Family Guide to Narnia: Biblical Truths in C.S. Lewis's The Chronicles of Narnia, and along with half a dozen other literature and curriculum guides, introducing thousands of children and their families to the world of Narnia.

For thirty-five years, she has been speaking at conferences and retreats all over the country, calling believers to a deeper life of faith, encouraging and equipping them to experience a more meaningful relationship with Christ.

Christin holds a doctorate in Spiritual Formation. She is also a Certified Labyrinth Facilitator, trained to teach and lead others in the contemplative Christian practice of praying the labyrinth. Since 2017, she has been happily married to Lewis scholar and Episcopal priest Andrew Lazo.

Full Bio

Best-selling author and conference speaker Christin Ditchfield is passionate about calling people to a deeper life of faith — encouraging and equipping them to experience a more meaningful relationship with Christ. As a professional freelance writer, Christin has written dozens of gospel tracts and hundreds of articles, essays, and columns for national and international magazines. She is the author of more than 80 books and Bible studies, on a wide variety of subjects and for a wide variety of readers — including devotional and inspirational books for women, books on C.S. Lewis, books and Bible studies on Spiritual Formation, and books for children and their families.

But she is perhaps best-known for A Family Guide to Narnia: Biblical Truths in C.S. Lewis's The Chronicles of Narnia (which just went into its 18th printing), along with a half dozen other literature and curriculum guides she has written, introducing thousands of elementary school children and their families to the world of Narnia.

For seventeen years, Christin hosted her own syndicated radio program, Take It To Heart!®, broadcast daily on hundreds of stations (including the Moody network) across the United States and around the world. She's been a frequent guest on many other radio and television programs and podcasts, as well.

Christin holds a bachelor's degree (BS) in Christian Leadership with a minor in Systematic Theology, a master's degree (MA) in Bible and Theology, and a doctorate (DMin) in Spiritual Formation. She is also a Certified Labyrinth Facilitator, trained to lead others in the contemplative Christian practice of praying the labyrinth.

Christin and her husband, Lewis scholar and Episcopal priest Andrew Lazo, currently make their home in Winter Garden (Orlando), Florida.

Labyrinth Event Bios

Brief Bio

Christin Ditchfield is a best-selling author, conference speaker, and Certified Labyrinth Facilitator, trained to lead others in the contemplative Christian practice of praying the labyrinth.

Full Bio

Best-selling author and conference speaker Christin Ditchfield is passionate about calling people to a deeper life of faith — encouraging and equipping them to experience a more meaningful relationship with Christ. As a professional freelance writer, Christin has written dozens of gospel tracts and hundreds of articles, essays, and columns for national and international magazines. She is the author of more than 80 books, on a wide variety of subjects and for a wide variety of readers.

Christin holds a bachelor's degree in Christian Leadership, a master's degree in Bible and Theology, and a doctorate in Spiritual Formation. She is a Certified Labyrinth Facilitator, trained to lead others in the contemplative Christian practice of praying the labyrinth. Christin and her husband, C.S. Lewis scholar and Episcopal priest Andrew Lazo, make their home in Winter Garden, Florida.

Educational Event Bios

Brief Bio for Public Schools and Libraries

Christin Ditchfield is an accomplished educator, with decades of experience teaching students from the preschool to the postgraduate level. She is the author of more than 80 books — many of them for children and their families, including a number of Little Golden Books, rhyming picture books, and nonfiction books for kids on sports, science, literature, and history.

Brief Bio for Christian School and Homeschool Events

Christin Ditchfield is an accomplished educator, with more than thirty years' experience in Christian education, teaching students from the preschool to the postgraduate level. She is the author of more than 80 books — many of them for children and their families — including the best-selling A Family Guide to Narnia: Biblical Truths in C.S. Lewis's The Chronicles of Narnia, as well as a number of Little Golden Books® Bible stories, rhyming picture books, biographies and other nonfiction books for kids on sports, science, literature, and history.

Full Bio

Christin Ditchfield is an accomplished educator, with more than thirty years' experience in Christian education, teaching students from the preschool to the postgraduate level. She is the author of more than 80 books — many of them for children and their families — including the best-selling A Family Guide to Narnia: Biblical Truths in C.S. Lewis's The Chronicles of Narnia, as well as a number of Little Golden Books® Bible stories, rhyming picture books, biographies, and other nonfiction books on sports, science, literature, and history, in addition to elementary school and Sunday School curriculum.

Christin has given presentations at schools and libraries, teachers' conferences, and homeschool conventions around the country. She's also a frequent guest on radio and television programs and podcasts. She holds a bachelor's degree (BS) in Christian Leadership with a minor in Systematic Theology, a master's degree (MA) in Bible and Theology, and a doctorate (DMin) in Spiritual Formation. Christin is married to C.S. Lewis scholar and Episcopal priest Andrew Lazo.